"You Are The Man!"

David A. Cox

"Nathan, said to David, 'You are the man!'" — (2 Samuel 12:7)

In 2 Samuel 12, Nathan confronts David for the sins he had committed and tries desperately to cover up. Nathan makes it very clear to David that he is the man who is responsible. We have become a society of victims. Today, people will not accept personal responsibility for the wrongs they commit in life. It is rare to hear someone say to another, "I am sorry, I was wrong or I have sinned. Will you forgive me?" The unwillingness to accept responsibility for our wrongs, sins presents a real problem in having a relationship with God. Blaming others or claiming to be the victim of circumstances is unacceptable to God. Everyone needs to accept responsibility for their actions. They must admit their failure and take corrective action so that God will be pleased.

Casting Blame On Others

In Genesis 3, the first sin was committed in the Garden of Eden. After eating the forbidden fruit, God called for Adam, who was hiding because he was naked. God then asked, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?" (Genesis 3:11). Adam's response was to blame Eve, "The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate." God then inquires of Eve, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate" (Genesis 3:12-13). Adam and Eve were asked a question that required a simple "yes" or "no" answer, but Adam and Eve placed the blame on someone rather than on themselves.

Another example is King Saul of Israel. God instructed Saul, "Now go and attack Amalek, and utterly destroy all they have and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and nursing child, ox and sheep, camel and donkey" (1 Samuel 15:3). Saul failed in doing what God said, the text records, "But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs, and all that was good, and were unwilling to utterly destroy them. But everything despised and worthless, that they utterly destroyed" (1 Samuel 15:9). There is no doubt that Saul disobeyed God's command. However the next day, Samuel, the prophet of God, went to Saul and Saul declared, "I have performed the commandment of the Lord" (1 Samuel 15:13). Samuel replied to Saul, "What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?" (1 Samuel 15:14). Saul's reply was to blame others as he said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and the oxen, to sacrifice to the Lord your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed" (1 Samuel 15:15). When Saul's claim to obeying God was shown to be wrong, he cast the blame on the people for sparing the Amalekites and not destroying them.

How God Responded To Blaming Others

How did God view Adam, Eve, and Saul for casting the blame on others? In the case of Adam and Eve falling into sin, God still held each of them accountable for their sin, and they suffered the consequences of their actions (Genesis 3:14-24). The response to Saul is the same. God was not pleased with Saul's disobedience, regardless of how he might have reasoned within himself to be justified in his sin. Because of Saul's disobedience, God rejected him as king of Israel (1 Samuel 15:17-24).

The Responsibility God Desires.

The attitude toward sin that God desires is the attitude David displayed when Nathan said, "You are the man." David was the king of Israel and should have been desiring to please God. Rather, he committed the sin of fornication with Bathsheba. The sin resulted in Bathsheba becoming pregnant. David made significant efforts to cover up his sin even to the killing of Uriah and taking Bathsheba to be his wife. The sin of David is unmasked, it is no longer hidden and it really never was to God. What David did is not what Adam, Eve or Saul did. The reaction of David is entirely different. David responded to Nathan saying, "I have sinned against the Lord" (2 Samuel 12:13). Yes, David accepted his responsibility for his sins. David accepted the responsibility for his sin and humbly pleaded for mercy and forgiveness (Psalm 51). What a different reaction!

May we all take the responsibility for our actions as David did and find the forgiveness and spiritual healing we all need. By accepting that we are the one who is responsible for what we do will help us to take the corrective steps to please God."

Fellowship: Defined & Experienced

Sean P. Cavender

The biblical word "fellowship" is used in the New Testament in a variety of ways. Generally, it means "an association involving close mutual relations and involvement" (Louw Nida, Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament: Based on Semantic Domains, 445). Louw Nida also defines fellowship as "one who participates with another in some enterprise or matter of joint concern—'partner, associate, one who joins in with'" (ibid., 446). The Greek term for fellowship is used in Luke 5:10 to describe the business partnership between the sons of Zebedee and Simon Peter.

It is interesting to notice throughout the New Testament the variety of ways and persons with whom Christians have fellowship.

- We have fellowship with God's Son (1 Corinthians 1:9)
- We have fellowship with the Holy Spirit (2 Corinthians 13:14)
- We must be in fellowship with the witness of the apostles who were eyewitnesses of the resurrected Christ (1 John 1:3)
- Light must have no fellowship with darkness/ righteousness must have no partnership with lawlessness (2 Corinthians 6:14)
- Fellowship is granted between Christians who agree and teach the same thing (Galatians 2:9)
- Christians are called to join in fellowship with Christ, even in His sufferings (Philippians 3:10)
- Christians are to be partners in the gospel (Philippians 1:5)
- Christians have a sharing and partnership through a financial relationship with those who preach the gospel (Philippians 4:15-16)
- Christians have fellowship and sharing in the body and blood of the Lord through the participation of the Lord's Supper (1 Corinthians 10:16)
- The early church continued in fellowship with each other (Acts 2:42)

We could categorize fellowship into a few broad categories:

- Our relationship with the three members of the

- Godhead (the Father, the Son, and the Spirit)
- Our relationship with the truth of the gospel
- Our partnership with other Christians in sharing the gospel
- Our worship through the joint participatory acts of the Lord's Supper and giving of our means to support the preaching of the gospel
- Our righteous behavior

The psalmist wrote, "we who had sweet fellowship together walked in the house of God in the throng" (Psalm 55:14). Thus, fellowship is a spiritual blessing from God in which we can join with friends and brothers and sisters in the Lord.

Editors' Note: The above article was written by Brother Sean Cavender. Sean preached for us this past Wednesday night. He told me how much he enjoyed being here and appreciated the encouragement you gave to him. Sean was in Athens for the CEI/Truth Lectures. He spoke on Thursday morning. Sean was leaving the lectures on Thursday night at about 9:30 and was tragically killed as the car he was driving was struck on the driver's side while proceeding with a green light. A worker at CEI told me that as Sean was leaving said, "This has been a great week!" What a picture of the character of Sean, attending the sessions of the lectures and spending time with saints was indeed a great week. Sean's funeral will be in Fort Smith, Arkansas on Tuesday morning. Keep Sean's wife, Kristin, and his two sons, Xander and Zeke, in your prayers.
